

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
Centers for Disease Control (CDC)
Advisory Committee on Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention (ACCLPP)
October 29 – 30, 2008 Meeting in San Diego, California

2008 CDC ACCLPP Unanimously Votes to Establish the Nation’s Childhood Lead Poisoning Education Work Group

On March 19, 2008, the CDC’s Advisory Committee on Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention unanimously voted to establish an Education Work Group to address the early intervention and identification needs of lead exposed children.

Centers for Disease Control’s ACCLPP Meeting held on October 29th and 30th. – 2008
Dr. Sherlynn Gardner, Chair of CDC Education Work Group’s (On the right in both pictures),
Connie Thomas, CDC Work Group Representative (Center in Picture one) and Dr. Vivian Cross, Education Work Group member (On the left in both pictures) provided an update on the establishment of the Work Group to CDC’s ACCLPP.

(L to R) Dr. Vivian Cross, FEA Executive Director and CDC Education Work Group Member,
Dr. Mary Jean Brown, Chief of CDC Lead Program and
Dr. Sherlynn Gardner, Chair of Education Work Group

2008 Centers for Disease Control ACCLPP Meeting Participants in
*San Diego, California - October 29th and 20th

